

page 1 left

MS 72

50

261
122

312
13

325

FROM
Hazard's Bookstore,
Monongahela City, Pa.
DEALERS IN
Wall Paper
And Blank Books.

[upper page left, illegible. Upper page center calculations]

[label reads] From Hazzard's Bookstore, Monongahela City, Pa. Dealers in Wall Paper and Blank Books.

Notes and Illustrations

While the Hazzard family was the publisher of the city's largest newspaper they also were the proprietors of several related businesses, including a bookstore. Here's an ad from the October 1, 1874 edition of the Monongahela Valley Republican:

HAZZARD & SON,

Booksellers & Printers,

HAZZARD'S PRINTING HOUSE,

MONONGAHELA CITY, PA.,

DEALERS IN

Albums,	Alphabet Blocks,
Blank Books,	Bristol Board,
Bill Heads,	Book Marks,
Bill Files,	Backgammon,
Base Balls,	Blotting Paper,
Composition books,	Copying Presses,
Chequers,	Card Cases,
Chess Boards,	Chalk Crayons,
Croquet,	Chromos,
Cards,	Camel hair pencils,
Calendars,	Colored Papers,
Drawing Books,	Drawing Papers,
Dominoes,	Drafts, bound,
Dolls,	Dice and Cups,
Erasers,	Envelopes,
Fancy Boxes,	French Papers,
Gum Labels,	Gold Papers,
Indexes,	Initial Papers,
Ink, bottled,	Inkstands,
Interest Tables,	Ivory Goods,
Knives, pocket,	Key Rings,
Lead Pencils,	Letter Papers,
Letter Balances,	Letter Clips,
Music, Sheet,	Music Paper,
Manilla Envelopes,	Manilla papers,
Mucilage,	Memorandum books
Magazines,	Note Papers,
Notarial Seals,	Newspapers,
Office Blankets,	Office Blankets,

Below is a "ghost sign" still appearing on the building once owned by the Hazzard family. Located on Main Street Monongahela, it is a silent reminder of Hazzard family and their businesses.

CHILLION WASHBURNE HAZZARD.

Born in Monongahela May 5, 1849 in the same house and same room in which his mother was born and married. During the war he accepted a commission in the 12th Pa. Reserves and served throughout the war, being in 42 fights and at the close of the campaign was mustered out as brevet major. Before the war he had entered into the newspaper business with his father and after his return he became publisher and editor of the Daily Republican. He served as postmaster of our city, was prominent along the military line and served as director and trustee in many local concerns.

Revision #10

Created 2024-06-09 00:12:32 UTC by DanT

Updated 2024-08-12 16:24:54 UTC by DanT