

Places of Worship

Churches, places of worship in the Monongahela Area.

- First Presbyterian Church, Monongahela
- Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Church and Cemetery
- Horseshoe Baptist Church and Cemetery
- First Baptist Church of Monongahela

First Presbyterian Church, Monongahela

This article is a stub, which means that it is a very short article and that people can add a lot more useful information to it. Most articles start as stubs and eventually grow to become regular articles once more information is added.

First Presbyterian Church, Monongahela

located in the City of Monongahela,

Pennsylvania, at the corner of 6th and

Main Street. It is a member of the Washington Presbytery and the Presbyterian Church (USA).

History

The predecessor to FPCM was the Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Church. It was located 2 1/2 miles outside of the City of Monongahela in Carroll Township. The church building was demolished but the adjoining church cemetery still exists and is one of the oldest in the Monongahela area.

Below are four sections that are useful for further information. Related Monongapedia articles are links to other related articles in Monongapedia. Explanatory notes and references are similar to footnotes in a book. Further reading is for additional suggested reading on the subject. External links are usually links to the official website of the topic of the article.

Related Monongapedia articles

- Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Church and Cemetery
 - Places of Worship
-

Explanatory notes and references

Further reading

- Linn, Alonzo. First Presbyterian Church of Monongahela City 1796 - 1921. First Presbyterian Church, 1921.
 - Historical Magazine of Monongahela's Old Home Coming Week | Historic Pittsburgh. The Chill W. Hazzard Co., 1908.
-

External links

- FPCM Facebook Page
- FPCM information on the Washington Presbytery website
- FPCM archived web page at Internet Archive

Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Church and Cemetery

This article is a stub, which means that it is very short and people can add a lot more useful information to it. Most articles start as stubs and eventually grow to become regular articles once more information is added.

Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Church and Cemetery (not to be confused with the nearby Horseshoe Bottom Baptist Church and Cemetery) was the predecessor to the First Presbyterian Church, Monongahela.

Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Church

The church was located 2 1/2 miles outside of The City of Monongahela on Coyle Curtain Road in Carroll Township on a farm owned by Simon Wilson. The church building was demolished but the adjoining church cemetery still exists and is one of the oldest in the Monongahela area. The site of the church building is marked by an approximately 6' high stone memorial to which a bronze tablet is attached that reads:

“ Presbyterian Church founded here in 1785, Organization transferred to Monongahela City in 1807 and the church is now known as the First Presbyterian Church of Monongahela City. This Memorial erected 1935

Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Cemetery

The cemetery property is owned and maintained by the First Presbyterian Church of Monongahela.

Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Cemetery Interments¹

| Name | Born | Died | Age | Notes |
|--------------------|------------|------------|-----|---|
| Blythe, Mary S. | | 09-23-1862 | 53 | Year of birth is also shown as 1812 and date of death is shown as 09-23-1865. |
| Blythe, William | 02-22-1800 | 01-31-1883 | | Year of death is also shown as 1893. |
| Blythe, William F. | 11-03-1864 | | 18 | Civil War vet. Co. E, 6th Heavy Artillery 212th PA Volunteers. Died in Alexandria, Va. |
| Calvin, Eliza J. | 1870 | | 34 | First name is also shown as Eliza Jane (Wilson), date of death as 1870-04-17. Wife of Enoch. Last name is also shown as Colvin. |
| Power, Hanna | na | | | Wife of Michael. |
| Power, Michael | | 05-25-???? | 57 | Soldier of the Revolution. DAR Patriot Index ² gives dates as 1755 and 1855 |
| Wells, Thomas | | 05-01-1813 | 71 | Born in Coleraine, Ireland , First name is also shown as Vinio and age as 78 |
| Wilson, John | | 08-27-1842 | 80 | Born near Enniskillen, Ireland. Day of death may also be 23. |
| Wilson, Rebecca | | 1868 | 66 | Wife of Samuel. |
| Wilson, Sinion | | 02-07-1864 | 76 | First name is also shown as Simeon & birthplace as Enniskillen, Ireland. |

Footnotes

1. Data in this table was compiled by the Daughters of The American Revolution in 1939 and was found in the genealogy section of the Citizen's Library, Washington PA. The data sometimes varies among data sets. Differences are noted in the Notes column. For more information see here.
 2. DAR Patriot Index - "The Centennial edition of the DAR Patriot Index contains the names of the Revolutionary patriots, both men and women, whose service (between 1774 and 1783) and identity have been established by the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution from its organization in October 1890 through the meeting of the National Board of Management on the Society's one hundredth birthday on October 11, 1990."
-

Further reading

- Horseshoe Bottom Presbyterian Cemetery entry at Find-a-Grave.com
-

Official Links

Horseshoe Baptist Church and Cemetery

- This article is a stub which means that it is a very short article and that people can add a lot more useful information to it. Most articles start as stubs and eventually grow to become a regular article once more information is added.

Horseshoe Baptist Church and Cemetery

is the site of a Baptist church and cemetery built in 1790. It is located on Rt. 837 in Carroll Township, Pa. about 500 ft from the intersection of Rt. 88 and Rt. 837. The church building no longer exists, but the cemetery remains. Located on the site is a historical marker erected in 1974 by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) that reads:

“ The Horseshoe Baptist Church was built first in 1790 on land formerly owned by Abraham Frye. In 1810 a brick church replaced the original log structure, and for seventy years the members worshipped here. In 1880 that church was torn down and members joined Monongahela Baptists. The cemetery which adjoined the church has been preserved in its original form. A Revolutionary War soldier, Captain George Grant, his wife Mary Worth, their families, Rabe, Colvin, Frye, Carson, Fisher, and many others whose stones have been destroyed are buried here.

Below are four sections that are useful for further information. Related Monogapedia articles are links to other related articles in Monogapedia. Explanatory notes and references are similar to footnotes in a book. Further reading is for additional suggested reading on the subject. External links are usually links to the official website of the topic of the article.

Related Monongapedia articles

Explanatory notes and references

Further reading

- List of cemeteries in Washington County
-

External links

- First Baptist Church of Monongahela website
- Horseshoe Baptist Cemetery on Find-A-Grave

First Baptist Church of Monongahela

This article is a stub, which means that it is a very short article and that people can add a lot more useful information to it. Most articles start as stubs and eventually grow to become regular articles once more information is added.

The First Baptist Church of Monongahela is located at 601 W. Main St., Monongahela, Pa. It is affiliated with American Baptist Churches of Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Below are four sections that are useful for further information. Related Monongapedia articles are links to other related articles in Monongapedia. Explanatory notes and references are similar to footnotes in a book. Further reading is for additional suggested reading on the subject. External links are usually links to the official website of the topic of the article.

Related Monongapedia articles

- Horseshoe Baptist Church and Cemetery

Explanatory notes and references

Further reading

External links

- First Baptist Church of Monongahela Website

