

Horseshoe Baptist Church and Cemetery

- This article is a stub which means that it is a very short article and that people can add a lot more useful information to it. Most articles start as stubs and eventually grow to become a regular article once more information is added.

Horseshoe Baptist Church and Cemetery

is the site of a Baptist church and cemetery built in 1790. It is located on Rt. 837 in Carroll Township, Pa. about 500 ft from the intersection of Rt. 88 and Rt. 837. The church building no longer exists, but the cemetery remains. Located on the site is a historical marker erected in 1974 by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) that reads:

“ The Horseshoe Baptist Church was built first in 1790 on land formerly owned by Abraham Frye. In 1810 a brick church replaced the original log structure, and for seventy years the members worshipped here. In 1880 that church was torn down and members joined Monongahela Baptists. The cemetery which adjoined the church has been preserved in its original form. A Revolutionary War soldier, Captain George Grant, his wife Mary Worth, their families, Rabe, Colvin, Frye, Carson, Fisher, and many others whose stones have been destroyed are buried here.

Below are four sections that are useful for further information. Related Monongapedia articles are links to other related articles in Monongapedia. Explanatory notes and references are similar to footnotes in a book. Further reading is for additional suggested reading on the subject. External links are usually links to the official website of the topic of the article.

Related Monongapedia articles

Explanatory notes and references

Further reading

- List of cemeteries in Washington County
-

External links

- First Baptist Church of Monongahela website
 - Horseshoe Baptist Cemetery on Find-A-Grave
-

Revision #14

Created 27 December 2023 19:34:00 by DanT

Updated 3 June 2024 18:38:14 by DanT